

The Power Station after it had been rebuilt

The now demolished Ebenezer Chapel is the three story building seen in the top left hand of the picture, now the site of Ashfield House, a local authority run centre for the development of young people. This is where the first rehearsals of the new choir took place.

The site of the former Power Station 2007

Tylorstown Primary School after the devastating fire
June 2000